Details of Decision to be taken:

If successful, to accept MHCLG's New System Plan Fund, which will commit the Council to commence plan-making early in the new plan-making system.

Clear Reasons why it is impractical to defer the decision until it has been included in the next Forward Plan:

On 15 January 2026 MHCLG announced funding for local authorities committed to bringing a plan forward early in the new plan-making system. Expressions of Interest were required by 28 January and authorities will be notified if they have been successful by 6 March with payments by 13 March 2026.

Given the short timescale to apply and accept the funding, it has not been possible to follow the standard forward plan process.

MHCLG expect funding to be divided equally across eligible local authorities with an anticipated award of around £120,000 each. However, subject to the number of applicants, the funding awarded could be more or less than this amount.

Authority to accept this amount of funding must be given by Cabinet and it is therefore proposed to include this decision on the Cabinet agenda for the 11th February 2026 meeting.
